Are the people not ready for the State to go out of the liquor business? It is wrong in principle.
It is not a legitimate function of Government. It is dignifying the traffic with the name of the State.
It makes possible the operation of most powerful political machine for corrupt purposes. Prohibition would be preferable, or a high license system under the most rigid restrictions. It would doubtless be a good idea, in case of a high license system, to adopt some of the best features of the dispensary.—Newberry Herald and News

If Bryan had been elected there is hardly a doubt but that the Yellow Democrats and Republicans would now be raging about this continued depression and vainly accusing Bryan and "Bryanism" of all manner of evil. But now that the advance agent of prosperity is in the president's chair and Hanna's minions are in charge of the other branches of the government, what can they say? The only solace to be given is "grin and bear it."—Yorkville Freeman.

Why is it Thus?

Let a boy fall—all hands and hearts are at his command for redemption sake. He is somebody's son. That is right. It is always right to save a fallen creature of any kind. Every mother's heart is bleeding for him. Every sister's tears are shed for him. The church is open for him if he manifests the slightest inclination to return to the path of rectitude. If he does return he is white robed and banqueted. A prodigal son returned.

But what of a girl? If she falls whose tears are shed, whose doors are open. She is a fallen woman, and for her there is no love and sympathy. She is a hopeless outcast. This is the exact state of things. Why do women spurn their own sex when one happens to fall, and the same day take the same man who brought her disgrace upon her by the hand and try to reform him?

There is an unsolved mystery in all this, and if any lady can explain why the female race has such hatred for her own sex, when a man is in all probability the cause of the downfall, we would be pleased to hear it. Why not love and save fallen woman as quick, or quicker, than fallen men?
But not so, she is shunned, kicked, scoffed at, shut out forever, and her soul is lost, while her own sex will extend a forgiving heart and open hand to the fallen man.
This is a terrible wrong.—Ex.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old resident of that place: "Frank McAvoy, for many years in the employ of the L. N. A. & O. Ry. here, says: 'I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer—am never without it in my family. I consider it the best remedy of the kind manufactured. I take pleasure in recommending it.' It is a specific for all bowel disorders. For sale by Dr. W. L.
Wallace.

Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Fairhaven N. Y. Register.
Mr. James Rowland of this village states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or pain and finds that it always gives relief.
He says that no medicine which she had ever used did her as much good. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace druggist.

Quinine and other fever medicines take from 5 to 10 days to cure fever.
Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic cures in ONE DAY.

According to the newspaper, an Ohio husband became the happy father of seven children not long ago. Of the seven all lived but one. It is to be hoped he laid in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, the only sure cure for croup, whooping-cough, colds etc., so insured his children against these diseases. For sale by Dr. W. L.
Wallace, druggist.

Why take Johnson's Chill & Fever Tonic?
Because it cures the most stubborn case of Fever in ONE DAY.

"It is the Best on Earth."

That is what Edwards & Parker, merchants of Plains, Ga., say of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, for rheumatism, lame back, deep seated and muscular pains. Sold by Dr. W.
L. Wallace, druggist.

Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic is a ONE-DAY Cure. It cures the most stubborn case of Fever in 24 Hours.

The common misuse of titles in conversation and in newspapers is shameful. The habit is ludicrous and idiotic. Undoubtedly it prevails widely in the South and it has very justly brought Southern people into ridicule. It is a pity that Southern good sense has not asserted itself and caused the habit to be forever abandoned. A veteran who has been a gallant private in war does not yearn to be addressed by other "handle" than "Mr." One who has been a real captain does not relish being called "Colonel." The average newspaper insists upon promoting all colonels to "generals" and newspaper writers are frequently idiotic enough to imagine that the colonels like it. A true man is in most cases a modest man and to be described in terms that do not justly appertain to him, he finds annoying and embarrassing.—

JOHNSON'S CHILL AND FEVER TONIC

Cures Fever
In One Day.

Few people know that John Wesley was ever in America. Few know that it was he, and not Robert Raikes, who established the first Sunday school in the world. It was John Wesley who preached the first Methodist sermon delivered in the United States. In The Ladies' Home Journal for June Rev. W. S. Scott will tell in the "Great Personal Events" series the story of "When John Wesley Preached in Georgia," which is said to be one of the most interesting narratives in this most successful series.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional treatment, Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundations of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.

THE DANGER to which the Expectant Mother is exposed and the foreboding and dread with which she looks forward to the hour of woman's severest trial is appreciated by but few. All effort should be made to smooth these rugged places in life's pathway for her, ere she presses to her bosom her babe.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

allays Nervousness, and so assists Nature that the change goes forward in an easy manner, without such violent protest in the way of Nausea, Headache, Etc. Gloomy forebodings yield to cheerful and hopeful anticipations—she passes through the ordeal quickly and without pain—is left strong and vigorous and enabled to joyously perform the high and holy duties now devolved upon her. Safety to life of both is assured by the use of "Mother's Friend," and the time of recovery shortened.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly and easily. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful."
